History of the French Settlers in Covington and Girard Townships

By Margaret (Billotte) Mignot

FOREWORD

A book of this nature can only be as complete as the author is able to gather information and data, both by research and direct questioning of persons in the area. All contacts have been most cooperative and invaluable. The author cannot adequately express her appreciation.

In order that this work might answer the hope of the author that it will serve all who are interested in history and genealogy, the author requests readers to communicate with her if they find errors, have information not reported or can supply other data which would make this book more complete in its coverage of the subject matter. The author urges the people mentioned in this book to talk about it and, in this way, help to make it more authentic for those who should be interested.

The author is grateful to all who have been generous, thoughtful and patient with her in her efforts.

COVINGTON TOWNSHIP

Covington Township was organized in 1817. It is bounded on the north by Elk and Cameron Counties, on the east by Karthaus Township and on the south by Girard, Graham and Cooper Townships. This township is eleven miles long and three and a half miles wide, giving it an approximate area of 40 sq. miles.

The settlement of the township was made by French immigrants who came over at the invitation of John Keating who mapped 22,000 acres of land, published descriptions of the tract in France. The sale of these lands was begun in 1827. The first people to locate were Nicholas Roussey and Irene Plubell in 1830. Next came Francois and Marguerite Beuret Coudriet and Claude Renaud.

Francois Coudriet was the postmaster at Frenchville and held office for 18 yrs.

The following is copied from Caldwell's Historical Atlas 1878, Covington Township.

Frenchville, Covington Township is a large and flourishing French settlement which commenced in 1835. The settlers were from Normandy and Picardy.

It is strange that they should have selected this place as there were no French within a hundred miles. A person in Philadelphia failed and was in debt to a merchant in Paris, a Mr. Zavron.

Mr. John Keating, his agent in Philadelphia, took land on the West Branch to settle this debt. The Paris merchant by means of a German agent induced a number of families to emigrate to these lands, and the latter prevailed upon others to follow them. In 1840, there were forty families there. The population now numbers over 200 families.

The first settler was John Smith, and he was alone for many years. A family by the name of Jacobs squatted on a tract of land and after several years residence moved westward.

The Jameses, Browns, and Gearharts who were here at an early date have all passed away.

At this date, considerable attention is paid to lumbering, things in the southern and central parts show great improvements have taken place in farming and many tracts of land are being upened up in the central and southern portions of the township. Much of this enterprise is due to the thriving French settlement, which traces back to 1831.

Register of Passports delivered from the years 1833 through 1856, Document Number 85 M 6

I have copied out notations for names of people who later show up in Frenchville wherever they have occurred in the passport register. Where more than one such person shows up on a given date, I have copied all the notations for that date. Note that the names I was using were not all the names from Frenchville, but only such names as I could find in Aldrich, and from tombstones in the Frenchville cemetery that indicated place of birth. I think I have all the Frenchville names from this document, though, since it is not very large.

COUTERETS

Francis Fortunate Couteret* (2/1821-), husband of Catherine Wagoner (10/1823-11/1844) - born in Germany. Their children were: Catherine (9/1845-); John (9/1847-5/1849); Clarissa (10/1852-1931); Virginia (5/1854-); Valentine (6/1856-1931); Mary (1859-1937), wife of Joseph Shubert; Joseph Prosper (5/1861-3/1878).

The children of Emma Couteret and Fred Bamat are: Margaret, wife of James Hoffman; Robert F. - Captain, State Police in Erie, Pennsylvania; John Patrick; and William.

*Francis Fortunate Couteret was county commissioner in 1872 for one term - served with Samuel H. Hindman and Gilbert Taylor.

Taken from Caldwell's Illustrated Combination Commercial Biographical Record of Central Pennsylvania (1878). The father of the subject of this sketch, Francois Coudriet, was born in France in 1805. He remained in France until the age of 26.

When he was 24 years old, he married Marguerite Beuret, born in 1804, and after two years of toil, he accumulated enough money to convey himself and family to America. He landed at New York in the spring of 1831. After stopping at Lebanon for the birth of their second child, Leon Mitchell Coudriet, he arrived in Bellefonte, Center Co. with one dollar and twenty cents in his pocket.

He obtained employment in a blast furnace making barely enough wages for the support of himself and family. After two years, he sought to better his condition and came to Clearfield where he obtained employment at 50¢ per day, remaining two years.

Many a man would have been discouraged by two years of fruitless toil, but his perseverance and good judgment finally carried him on the road to prosperity. He removed from Clearfield to where Frenchville is now located, being induced to do so by the offer of a Mr. Keating, who having a large body of land, and wishing to form a settlement, offered 12 acres to the first twelve settlers.

Mr. Coudriet bought 50 acres more and commenced to clear a farm, upon which he lived for 25 years. He was a wagon maker by trade, and followed that in connection with farming. At the time he settled, there were but four other settlers in what is now Covington Township and the inconveniences and hardships that were endured can better be imagined than described.

After 1859, he purchased a large tract of land on Sandy Run to which he removed, building a large flouring mill, sawmill and store room, where he operated extensively and successfully until his death in the fall of 1877 at the age of 72 years.

He raised a family of seven sons and four daughters of whom six sons and two daughters survive him.

Leon M. Coudriet, our subject, was born May 10, 1831, the same year his father arrived in America. His childhood days were spent in hard work instead of the schoolroom. Hence, he grew to manhood without the advantage of an education, but there are often men who acquire an education by association and experience all that has been neglected, from necessity, in their early life, and we find Mr. Coudriet fitted to fill any position in which his circumstances and surroundings may place him.

He was married in 1853 to Jeanne Pierre Guenot, but remained working with his father until he was 23. He then commenced business for himself with a good constitution and an indomitable will as his capital. He turned his attention to farming in the summers, and in the winter, devoted his time to jobbing in timber which he continued to do until 1861 when he concluded to conduct his business on a different plan.

Not having the money he borrowed, he gave his obligation at 10%, to buy a tract of timberland for which he paid $10 an acre. Meeting with the success his industry deserved, not long after he made a large purchase at the mouth of Deer Creek, from Judge Lamb, consisting of 800 acres for which he paid $20,000. The second important purchase was the Sheriff Pie property for which he paid $25,000. The third purchase was his father's homestead, for which he paid $16,500.

He has been engaged in the mercantile business since 1861. As an illustration of the extent of his business, he remarked that his profits in one year amounted to $10,000. At the present time, 1878, he owns over 4000 acres of land, 1500 of which are timber, and several finally improved farms. He is considered one of the largest as well as one of the most successful timber operators in the country. He has a large factory in Dauphin Co. which makes doors, windows, etc.

He is one of Clearfield's self-made men, and has earned his prosperity by his natural talents, good foresight, and energy of purpose.

The third of the French settlers to come to Covington Township was Francis Coudriet who came in 1831. He became a prominent personage in the township, and by industry and thrift acquired a large estate. He was the first postmaster of Frenchville which office he held for 18 years.

His son, Leon Mitchell Coudriet, is now postmaster, at Frenchville, having held the office since 1880. The first school in Frenchville was opened in 1838. Francis was an enterprising, thrifty, honest and progressive man.

He acquired a comfortable fortune and by his integrity and moral worth, gained that which is more to be desired, the respect and confidence of his fellowmen. Some of the stone used in the erection of St. Mary's Church was contributed by him and taken from his land. He contributed generously to the building and support of the Church. Leon Mitchell, the second of his 11 sons and daughters, seems to have possessed much of his father's enterprising spirit and to have taken up his business on his death in 1877.

Up to the age of 23, Leon M. worked at home and on the farm and woods with his father, having but little chance for education. In 1853 he married Jeanne Pierre Guenot, an orphan girl who came to this country with relatives. He moved to Girard Township - 12 children were born. In 1866, he opened a store on Buck Run. He has a Mercantile business, lumber, gristmills, sawmills, also tenant houses on his various properties.

The subject of this biography, Frank L. Coudriet, was the son of Leon M. Coudriet. Frank L. Coudriet has throughout his entire business career been prominently identified with the commercial and agricultural interests of the community, and has taken an active part to those enterprises that tend to public development and is accounted one of the leading and influential citizens of the community. Mr. Coudriet was born in Covington in 1854, a son of Leon M. and Jeanne Pierre Guenot Coudriet, while his paternal grandparents were Francois and Marguerite Beuret Coudriet.

The grandfather, Francis Coudriet, purchased land on which he made his home until 1851 when they bought the Lamont property and commenced lumbering and merchandising. In their grandfather's family, Francis Coudriet, were the following children: Serdon N. Coudriet, who married Nancy Leigey by whom he had nine children; Leon M. Coudriet, the father of our subject is next in the line of birth. He married Jeanne Pierre Guenot. Louis F. Coudriet, a farmer, married Mary Perrot. They have a large family. Prosper A. Coudriet, a miller by trade, married Regina Gormont and they have several children. Virginia, wife of John Bergey - a farmer. They have eight children. Alfonse died when he was 14. Frank F. married Zelin Mullen and is a lumberman in Girard Township. Napoleon F. married Margaret Hugard. They have 12 children. Celestine married Felix Picard. They had two children. After his death, she married Justin Triponier. They had six children.

Leon M. Coudriet, the father of our subject, Frank, was born in Lebanon Co. in 1831 and accompanied his parents on their various removals finally locating in Frenchville where he grew to manhood. He was, for a number of years, extensively engaged in the lumber business, at first buying 1200 acres in Girard Township, where he carried an operation until 1867 when he removed to Mulsonberg. Engaged there in merchandising, he purchased 3500 acres in Covington Township and Girard Township, and continued in active business until his death in April, 1888. He was one of the most enterprising, energetic and successful businessmen in the community and by fair and honorable dealing, won the confidence and high regard of all with whom he came in contact. Frank was reared and educated in Mulsonberg in November, 1877.

BIOGRAPHIC

Anthony Gette was born in France on February 10, 1814. The exact date of his arrival in the United States is not known, but must have occurred shortly after 1840. His name does not appear in the Census of 1840 for Clearfield County. But in the Census of 1850, he is listed as "Anthony Gates", age 35, a farmer whose real estate is valued at $800. He must have married shortly after his arrival in Frenchville, for the Census of 1850 lists the name of his wife, "Mary Gates", age 26, along with the names of his children: Francis, age 6; Ann S., age 3; Lewis, age 2; and Catherine, age 2 months. Anthony must also have established his farm during the 1840's, at the very tip of the high point of Sandy Creek. His well and the foundation of his cabin are there today. Caldwell's Illustrated Atlas of Clearfield County shows (pp. 118, 212) that in 1878, he owned 48 acres of land at this site. Anthony Gette died on January 9, 1891. His will names Frank Gette as executor, and states that Frank's interest in the estate "is that of a son and heir at law." The surviving children of Anthony Gette are listed as Frank, Sophia, Marie, and Catherine; and the names of the daughters' husbands are given.

Marie Julie Plubel, wife of Anthony Gette, was born on February 16, 1825, in the town of Preigney, canton of Vitrey, department of the Haute-Saône, France. She was baptized in the parish church of Molay, about two miles from Preigney. Marie was the daughter of Irénée Plubel (born July 10, 1783) and Agathe Faivre (born May 13, 1787). Irénée and Agathe were married on April 8, 1812 at Preigney. Their records and those of a number of their ancestors are preserved in the departmental archives of the Haute-Saône in Vesoul. Irénée was descended from a line of merchants and landlords who had established themselves in the territory east of Langres. Irénée's occupation is listed in his marriage record as forest warden of Bourguignon-les-Morey. Irénée and his daughter, Marie, were among the first settlers of Frenchville. Aldrich's History of Clearfield County indicates (p. 503) that Irénée Plubel and Nicholas Roussey came to Clearfield County in 1830 and took up lands on tract number 1939. Irénée was the first person to die in the new community. His tombstone in the Frenchville cemetery records that he died in 1833, and bears the inscription: "Prier pour lui/ C'est le premier/ Décédé ica." Irénée's wife, Agathe, must have died in France, or enroute to America, since she is not buried in Frenchville. Armand Plubel and Frank Plubel are buried next to Irénée in the Frenchville cemetery, and are probably his sons or brothers. Marie, who lies buried between her father, Irénée, and her husband, Anthony, died on January 6, 1860.

Anthony Gette and Marie Plubel had five children, as nearly as can be established from the Census of 1850 and Anthony's will of 1891. Frank, born in 1844, became a shoemaker. He applied his trade in Frenchville for a while, then moved to Ridgeway, and finally settled down in Philipsburg with his wife, Martha, and his son, Claude, who sired the Philipsburg branch of the Gette family. Ann Sophia born in 1847, married Adolphe Perrot. They lived all their lives in Frenchville, and ran the general store for many years. Lewis Gette was born in 1848. He is not buried in the Frenchville cemetery, and must have died away from home. He may be the Gette who, according to family legend, was killed in a tavern brawl in West Virginia. Catherine, born in 1850, married Jacob Frelin. They owned a farm near Frenchville, and were the parents of Nestor Frelin. Marie Gette must have been born shortly after 1850. She married John Sergey of Frenchville.

Was told the following.....

Anthony, while working out his taxes on the road, broke his leg and was crippled thereafter. He arrived from France, probably in the early 1840's, and married soon after. His farm was located at the tip of the high point of land which lies just west of the mouth of Sandy Creek. His well and foundations of his cabin and barn together with a few apples trees and a grapevine are there today. The French called it "Le place d'antoine". One interesting thing that was told about him was that as the LeConte's store was discontinued, the books showed daily one quart of whiskey, except Saturday when it was two quarts.

His daughter, Sophia (Gette) Perrot told that when she was a young girl, she and several other girls would leave early in the morning, walk to Clearfield where they would buy salt pork, salt, flour and sugar, and walk back home. Her two sisters, Catherine and Amelia, died of tuberculosis.

Nestor Frelin told me that Dennis Gette fell from a bridge into the river and drowned. Edith Perrot said that her grandmother, Sophia Gette, told her that Dennis was subject to seizures and that he drowned in the river and his body was found downriver near Lock Haven.

LaMottes *

Originated in Fays Billot, France

Anna Katrine LaMotte (1774-1848).

Margaret LaMotte, wife of Etienne Grossaint (1788-). They had three children. They sailed for America on March 12, 1834.

Francois LaMotte (1804-), husband of Anna Racquet. Their children are: Mary, wife of Francois Gormont; Clarette, wife of Francis Grossaint; Reine, wife of Nicholas Grossaint; Catherine, wife of John Fontenois; Annie Melanie, wife of Louis Denis; Eugene, husband of Marguerite Petit (1839-); Pauline, wife of _____ Delanne; and August.

Francis LaMotte came from France in 1833. He purchased part of the Keating lands on Sandy Creek on which he built a saw mill about 1837. He later erected a grist mill a short distance further down. These mills are well remembered by older residents of the locality.

Help was scarce and expensive at that time, and as the proprietor had several strong and worthy daughters, they were put to work in the mills, and it was a frequently observed fact that the lumber manufactured by these fair hands was of the best quality and, as far as even uniform thickness was concerned, their manufacture was not excelled.

While a church was being erected, Father Oriack said mass at the house of Francis LaMotte (1841-42). Francis donated two acres, 30 rods east of the present church, now part of the cemetery, on which a log church was built. Mr. Keating re-embursed Francis and added more acreage.

Francis LaMotte went back to France and, Pauline, who was born in Frenchville, Pennsylvania, went back with her father. She married in France and never returned. The descendants of Pauline are still in Fays Billot, France.

Ferdinand A. Mignot (deceased) was in his day one of the leading businessmen of Girard Township, Clearfield Co. He was widely known and honored, and in his death the community, whose interests he so much advanced by his enterprises, has lost a valued citizen. His integrity of character, unbounded benevolence, and never-failing courtesy made him beloved by all who had his acquaintance.

Augustus Leconte, maternal grandfather of our subject, purchased 800 acres of land from Mr. Keating in Paris, France, and in 1832, came to the United States to take possession of his property. On his arrival in New York, he came to Girard Township, his land being located in both Girard and Covington Townships, and engaged in merchandising in Girard Township. Later, he removed to the farm on Deer Creek, where he erected a residence, also a gristmill and continued to successfully engage in lumbering, milling and merchandising up to his death, which occurred June 24, 1873. For two years his widow continued the business, and then moved to the city of Clearfield where she purchased a home.

Mr. Leconte married Miss Caroline Sharon of Normandy, France, whose parents were farming people of that province. Of the children born of their union, Mrs. Mignot, the mother of our subject, was the eldest. Eugenia was married in 1861 to Edmund Beausiegnur, by whom she had three children. They made their home with her parents. Fannie is the wife of C. A. Wood of Altoona, Blair Co., Pa., by whom she had three children, two still living. Mr. and Mrs. Wood took up their residence in Harrisburg, Pa. where he engaged in railroading; later moving to Philadelphia, and from there to Altoona, Pa., where they still reside.

The birth of Charles Mignot, the father of our subject, occurred in Cintrey, France on April 12, 1818 and, on coming to this country, he first located in Centre Co., Pa. where he worked in the Curtin Iron Works until 1835, at which time he came to Karthaus, Clearfield Co.

After working for five years at the furnace for Peter Karthaus, he located on a farm in Covington Township, and for seven years was in the employ of Mr. Leconte, his father-in-law. By trade, he was a blacksmith. On the 8th of January, 1850, Charles Mignot was married to Caroline A. Leconte, and to them were born two sons, Ferdinand and Ernest.

Ferdinand A. Mignot was born upon the old home farm in Girard Township, November 12, 1850, and began his education in the common schools of the neighborhood. At the age of fifteen, he entered St. Vincent's College in Westmoreland County, Pa., where he remained for a year and a half, later taking a course in surveying at St. Francis College in Cambria Co., Pa. where he was graduated. After his return home, he made a trip to Europe, remaining there three months, and leaving Paris just two days before the France-Prussian war broke out. In the following year, he was appointed deputy sheriff under Mr. Pie. He creditably filled this office for one term. He made his home with his grandparents until 1875 when, in May of that year, he became connected with his brother in the mercantile and lumber business, which they successfully conducted until his death.

Mr. Mignot was married June 30, 1887 to Miss Annie Briel of Covington Township, Clearfield Co., and they became the parents of two children: Amelia, who is now 70 years old and Ferdinand C., who was born August 13, 1893. They continued to reside on the old Leconte homestead on Deer Creek until the death of Mr. Mignot, which occurred January 8, 1894. His widow has since moved to Frenchville, where with her children she still resides. She is a most estimable lady, whose friends are many throughout the community. Her parents, John and Margaret (McGonigal) Briel, made their home in Mulsonburg, where her father followed blacksmithing.

Politically, Mr. Mignot was a Democrat. He held the office of treasurer of Girard Township for seventeen years, and was elected justice of the peace in 1892. He took an active interest in the schools and all local affairs, and gave liberally of his means toward the support of all worthy enterprises which would benefit the community. He was a consistent Catholic and one of the strong supporters of the Church.

Charles Mignot, father of our subject, was born April 7, 1818, in Cintrey, France, where in 1832 they came to this county, locating in Bellefonte, Pa. In 1842, Charles became a resident of Centre Co., where he and his father opened up a farm which they operated until the death of the latter. He had a family of eight children, as follows: Charles; Elizabeth, widow of Francis Berthot, who opened up a farm in Covington Township, but died in France; Frank, of Covington Township; Florentine, of Wellsville, Kansas; Emit, of Covington Township; and Boniface, who died in the same township at the age of 17; Augustus; and John.

Charles Mignot was married January 6, 1849, in Girard Township, to Caroline Amelia Leconte, who was born in Paris, France, a daughter of Augustus and Caroline (Sharon) Leconte, natives of the same country. In 1832, her parents came to Covington Township, and the father engaged in merchandising and lumbering in Frenchville for some years. He later removed to a farm at the mouth of Deer Creek, and carried on the same pursuits there until 1854, when he located on what is known as the homestead farm. He died there January 24, 1873. The family then carried on the business until September 11, 1875, when Mrs. Leconte moved to Clearfield where she died in May, 1890. They had three children: Caroline Amelia (Mrs. Mignot); Eugenia, of Clearfield; and Fannie, wife of C. A. Woods of Altoona. Charles Mignot lived in Girard Township for some time and was engaged in merchandising and lumbering. He later lived on a farm on Deer Creek, until the death of his wife when, on June 22, 1864, he moved to the Leconte homestead. But since 1895, he has resided with our subject in Karthaus. Two children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mignot, as follows: Ferdinand married Annie E. Briel and lived on the old homestead in Girard Township until his death on June 6, 1894; and Ernest F., the subject proper of this sketch.

Ernest F. Mignot was born in Girard Township, Clearfield Co., September 6, 1852, and received his education at the common schools of the neighborhood of his home. When old enough, he united with his brother in business, and they carried on merchandising and lumbering in Girard Township, our subject also conducting a farm. On November 9, 18-- , Ernest F. settled in Karthaus where, in partnership with J.S. Briel, he erected a flouring mill on the river, and began milling and lumbering at that point. The partnership between them was dissolved November 9, 1887, at which time Mr. Mignot purchased a tract of timberland on Deer Creek, and began lumbering

He is now engaged in the same pursuit in Girard Township, where he also operates a sawmill, and is the owner of 900 acres of valuable timberland underlaid with coal.

In Covington Township, Clearfield Co., August 4, 1878, Ernest F. Mignot was married to Miss Nancy Jane, who was born in Covington Township, a daughter of John and Margaret (McGonigle) Briel, the former a native of Germany, and the latter a native of Pennsylvania. Eight children were born from this union, their names and dates of birth being as follows: Jules Ferdinand, May 18, 1879; Jesse J., November 8, 1882; Florence A., January 1, 1884; Clare Briel, July 8, 1890; and Francis Angelo, January 6, 1894; Ann; Agnes; and Madeline.

Francis Mignot, of Covington Township, Clearfield Co., was for many years actively engaged in general farming, and met with such excellent success in his chosen calling, that he is now able to spend his declining years in ease and retirement, enjoying the comforts and many of the luxuries of life. He was born in France in 1821, and accompanied his parents, Hyacinth and Frances (Charbonet) Mignot, to the United States, arriving in Bellefonte, Centre Co., Pa. on July 4, 1821. From that city, the parents came to Frenchville, Clearfield Co., where the father purchased 60 acres of land in the midst of a forest, which he transformed into a good farm. He continued to follow agricultural pursuits in Covington Township throughout the remainder of his life.

Our subject is one of a family of eight children, the others being as follows: Charles, married to Caroline A. Leconte, by whom he had two children. They lived at Deer Creek, Clearfield Co.; Elizabeth, married to Francis (Berthot), a farmer of Covington Township, by whom she had eight children; John, an agriculturist of the same township, married Miss Teresa Lehr and has nine children; Augustus, a farmer of Girard Township, married Margaret Cayot, and has several children; Emil, a farmer of Covington Township, married Malinda Picard, who died in 1866 leaving four children. He later wedded Margaret Martin, of Centre Co., by whom he has seven children; Boniface, who died at the age of 17.

For five years after his immigration to America, Francis Mignot lived in Howard, Centre Co., and in May, 1837, removed to Karthaus, Clearfield Co., where he worked at the furnace for the Coke and Iron Company some three years. Since that time, he made his home in Covington Township, where he purchased 150 acres of wild land, which he immediately commenced to clear and improve, transforming the same into highly-cultivated land.

Mr. Mignot was joined in wedlock with Miss Mary Mulson, a daughter of Peter and Catherine (Perrot) Mulson, of France, and they became the parents of ten children, namely; Lucy, wife of John Rougeux, a farm of Covington Township, by whom she has 13 children; Elizabeth, wife of Francis Voichet, also a farmer of Covington Township, by whom she has three children; Katharine, wife of Serdon Rolley, of West Virginia, by whom she has ten children; Caroline, who married John Picard, a farmer of Covington Township, and had one child and, after his death, wed James Frelin of the same township by whom she had three children; Mary, wife of Frank L. Coudriet, of Covington Township, by whom she had four children; Adele, wife of Jule Jannot of the same township, by whom she had four children; Nomie, wife of Joseph Higgins, of Bitumen, Clinton Co., Pa., by whom she had two children; Rosie; wife of Charles Wright, of Salamanca, New York, by whom she had one child; Ellen who died when she was two years old; and Nestor F., who married Jane Rougeux, and lives on the old homestead in Covington Township.

Mr. Mignot gives his political support to the Republican party, for whose interests he has always worked, and has served as a school director in his district. A worthy and prominent citizen, he has taken a lively interest in the progress and development of the county, giving his encouragement and substantial support to the various institutions calculated to build up the community and for the best good of the people. In his faith, he is a devout Catholic, as is also his family.

The names Rolley, Rollet, Rolliet, Rolle, etc. are the same surname with the phonetical difference due to some changes in spelling by some ancestor. The name Rollon is the name of an ancient Danish Family the famous Wolf. The Rollon line is traced through the Dukes of Normandy to William the Conqueror to a French family - one Francois Rolliet, who came to America in 1833 bringing a wife and three of his four children: Daniel; Augustus; and Mary. The following article contains some of my recollections -- including the years 1921 through 1924, when I lived at the rectory with my grandmother, Sarah (Coudriet) Frelin, who kept house for Reverend Thomas McGovern.

There was a large convent next to the church where the nuns had their quarters and conducted classes for the children. I often spent a great deal of time there looking through old books and papers that were scattered around on the second floor.

At that time, it was used as a community center -- dances and suppers were held there. It was also used to prepare food for the Frenchville Picnic. There were large stone outdoor ovens to bake bread, etc. They had round domed tops that looked like large bee hives. In the front was a metal door. The food was inserted with a long handled wooden shovel.

In the last decade or so, the convent was torn down and a new community center erected on the site. When I was still living at the rectory, a large dance hall was built in back of the picnic ground.

In those days, the Frenchville Picnic was one of the big affairs of the community. It served as a reunion for people who had moved away. The primary purpose of the picnic was to raise money for the church. Practically the whole community worked to make it a success. As long as I can remember, Sade (Hugney) Hugar was the picnic's official coffee maker. She made it over an open fire in large copper bottomed clothes boilers. The dishes were washed in wash tubs. In the woods in back of the convent was a long wooden shed with stalls where the horses were kept during church services. Many families had 12 or 14 children and the spring wagons were crowded.

For nearly one hundred years, the settlers rarely married outside the community. All the families of the community intermarried for many years -- cousins marrying cousins, etc. until the advent of the automobile and consolidated schools.

I was very much interested in history as a child and tried to remember everything the older residents who were born in the 1840's would tell me about life in the nineteenth century. Many of them lived to be 90 years old.

From October, 1931, when my daughter, Virginia, was born, until Napoleon Coudriet, my great-grandfather, died in April, 1932, there were five generations living at the same time. Napoleon was a happy-go-lucky fellow. He didn't worry about the future, which probably accounts for his long life. He used to say that you can eat only so much food and wear so many clothes at one time. He was a familiar sight going through Frenchville with his wheelbarrow gathering horse manure as fertilizer for his garden. He was very fond of hard cider and, after a visit to the local tavern, he would come home and say to his wife, "All right, Margaret. I am ready to clean the cellar." He would then go down to the cellar and start tossing the vegetables out the window.

His wife, Margaret, was the midwife and practical nurse of the community. There are nearly forty descendants named for her.

An amusing story that has been retold in our family for many years concerns my husband's Uncle Jesse, who was an undertaker around the turn of the century. In those days, the roads were unpaved, muddy and full of ruts for five or six months of the year. The hearse was drawn by horses. One day, after spending the morning at the local tavern, he was called to pick up a body. Arriving at his establishment, he discovered he had lost the body and had to drive back several miles to find it.

My husband's father, Jules Fernando Mignot, was the mailman at LeContes Mills for many years. After he became ill, my husband served as substitute carrier for three years until his father's death, when Thomas Stiner took over. The same route is now covered by Bruce Coudriet.

My great-grandfather, Francois Coudriet, was the first postmaster at Frenchville, serving 18 years. His son, Leon M. Coudriet, took over the position after his father's retirement. The next postmaster was Adolph Perrot. After his death, his granddaughter, Jane (Perrot) Roussey, took over and has been postmistress for 36 years.

Knowing most of the older residents in the 1920's has helped me considerably in compiling the lists of the older generations. World history has always been a hobby of mine. I spend my vacations visiting historical landsites, civil war battlefields, Williamsburg, Virginia, Harpers Ferry, and historical sites in the New England states and Canada, etc. This summer I decided to stay home and gather this information as I have been planning a trip to France for the last ten years but didn't want to go until I had all this information gathered.

The biographies of the Coudriets, Mignots and LeContes are copied from the "Central Biographical History of Pennsylvania" and "Caldwell's Historical Atlas", published in 1878. Tax lists, etc., are also taken from "Caldwell's Historical Atlas".

This summer I received a newspaper clipping stating that Miss Noemie Mignot of Cherbourg, France, oldest woman employee of the French postal system, died July 6, 1968, just three weeks before her 106th birthday.

Henry Ford's granddaughter, Anne Ford Uzielli, is married to the son of Mme. Sybil Billotte, who has a 15-room estate in suburban Senlis, France. When Anne and her 18-month-old son, Alex Ford Uzielli, visited Mme. Billotte this summer, Alex was accompanied by two bodyguards, a nanny and a chauffeur.

In closing, I wish to thank everyone who helped to compile this history. I am especially indebted to Luther Gette, who did the research on passport records, etc., when he was studying in France several years ago.
